A COMPELLING NOVEMBER "DRIVE,"

BACK TO NORMALCY IN PRICES!

Bringing the Year's Biggest Economies In All Kinds of Merchandise--Beginning

The poor old High Cost of Living is now definitely in for a terrible beating. For months we have been whipping him from pillar to post with the good news of lowering prices, and now we shall make another serious effort to drive him out of town.

Our battle on the market for Lower Prices has had large rewards during the past few weeks, and now our store is simply overflowing with splendid merchandise that tells it's own good news.

> Lower Prices on All Kinds of Children's Apparel Lower Prices on All Kinds of Men's Apparel Lower Prices on All Kinds of Women's Apparel Lower Prices on Everything for the Home

It means that all your dollars are WORTH MORE THAN THEY WERE A WEEK OR SO AGO, because they will buy so much more.

In the past, there has been little satisfaction about making bigger wages, when the wages wouldn't buy as much as smaller wages bought in the good old days. But now your wages WILL BUY MUCH MORE, and that is much better than a raise in salary.

Best of all, this November DRIVE offers you the FINEST OF THE SEASON'S NEW GOODS--not odd lots, or old goods--everything spick-span-new and perfect--everything the BEST WE COULD SELECT, in quality, patterns and colorings--not at the end of the season; but RIGHT NOW, with the whole season of wear ahead of you.

Every section of our store is co-operating in this great "DRIVE". No matter what kind of goods you want, you now are likely to find it at a large saving from recent prices.

"It's no wonder that everybody sees a change in mother since she be-gan taking Tanlac, for she has gained seventeen pounds and can get a-

"My mother is now sexty-eight years old and for eight years had suffered from loss of appetite, nervousness, constant headaches, severe pains in the chest and back and frequent spells of dizziness. She became so bad off about five years ago that she had to give up all housework, and spent most of her time in bed. During all that time she neither knew what it was to have a well day or a night's rest, and her condition became alarming that we never expected to see her up and about again.
"One day she read in the papers about somone who had been greatly helped by Tanlac, and nothing would satisfy her until she had tried it her-self. So I drove 35 miles to Evansville and got her a bottle. She's had four more bottles since then and she has actually gained sevnteen pounds in weight, and it's years since I saw her looking so well. She praises Tanlac all day long, and her remarkable recovery has made such a stir around Rumsey that scores of other sick people have been taking Tanlac with splendid results. She said she would rather have a good time with her money and let folks buy Thrift Stamps who liked them. She wanted candy and picture shows and she should worry about Thrift Stamps."

fence is described as an "intimate, official and first hand recital" of the accomplishments of the organized women of America in the world war. While the intimacy of the report is open to question it is certainly a remarkable tribute to the patriotism of American women.

The mere man who only vaguely heard tell of the multifarious activities of the Woman's Committee will be astounded to learn how much was actually accomplished. The registration of four million women, the invaluable assistance they gave to the Food Administration, the general campaign of education, health and recreation which was undertaken by the Woman's Committee contributed very largely to the preservation of good morale on Committee contributed very largely to the preservation of good morale on the home sector during a peculiarly abnormal period of our history.

The record of the State divisions is perhaps the most interesting part of the story. The Woman's Committee in Washington could only issue general orders telling each State what the objectives were. The manner in which each State division reached those objectives is the real history of the effort put forth by American women. Their ingenuity courage and persistence cannot be dimmed even by the depressing pages of an official pamphlet—New York Herald.

If the citizens of our community will give as much of their time, heir thoughts and energy to the salvation of souls and attending the revival that's on in our midst as many did in campaigning for the election, we would have a great spiritual awakening in Cloverport. And that is what Cloverport needs.

BRIGHT WEATHER ON ELECTION DAY

Said To Be the Sign of a Democratic Victory. Heavy Polling of Women Votes; Many Free Rides.

Election day, Tuesday, dawned bright and fair in Cloverport after a terrific rain and wind storm the night previous. There is an old adage, so The Breckenridge News is told, that a rainy day means a Republican vic-tory and a sun shiny day is favorable to the Democrats. So the Democrats of the community looked for a victory in Cloverport at least, on this fair election day.

It seemed as if every automobile in town was put in use. There were a lot of free rides and many made happy

There was a heavy polling of votes at the poles. It is estimated 1,200 votes were cast, the largest number ever voted here. Particularly did the women come out both in white and colored races. It was a new epoch in their lives, the beginning of a new day when they could thoroughly exercise their own rights and independence of thought. So they faced it, leaving household duties behind and many got out early in the day.

In the Fourth precinct the ballots almost gave out before the poles closed. Only a few of the women of rural routes came in to vote but the streets were filled with men.

At each precinct the women of both parties took turn about in standing outside the polls and gave the women instructions on voting.

There were deputy policemen ap pointed for the day. However the absence of whisky made this presidential election a peaceful and quiet one, and there was no contention or strife at any of the voting places.

The world is full of shut-ins, and there are those who are starving for books and papers, but how many of us make any effort to search them out?

A clever article on books which I ing how stupid is the custom of borrowing books, and how vastly more desirable it is for each man to own his own. I decided that the writer was a rich man (although my better judgment should tell me that writers seldom are rich), and I decided also that he was missing a lot of good things if he neither lends nor borrows books. I believe that a book is about the pleasantest thing there is to share. It produces such a bond of sympathy if it is enjoyed by a friend, and it provides at once something worth while to talk about.

The largest campaign fund in the nistory of the world was that raised by Mark Hanna for McKinley in 1896, lately read annoyed me by explain- $16,500,000. He received 271 electoral votes. Bryan had $675,000 and received 176- votes. In 1900 McKinley had the second largest fun in history, $9,500,000, with 292 votes, and Bryan $425,000 and 155 votes. In 1904 Roosevelt had $3,500,000, 336 votes; Parker $1,250,000, 140 votes. In 1908 Taft had $1,700,000, 321 votes, Bryan, $750,000, 162 votes. In 1912 Taft had $750,000, 8 votes; Roosevelt $325,000, 88 votes; Wilson $850,000, 435 votes.

In 1916 Hughes had a campaign fund of $2,201,535 and received 254 votes; Wilson $1,400,229 and 277 votes. The Journal shows by these figures that the candidate with the largest campaign fund has won in every elec-tion except the last, when Wilson defeated Hughes. — Elizabethtown

ANCIENT AND MODERN NAMES

Writer Contends That Present-Day Appellations Lack the Euphony of the Olden Times.

Speaking of New England names, the genealogical columns of the Transcript are indeed a standing proof that the seventeenth and eighteenth century names possessed much more of snap, flavor and euphony than our twentieth century names possess.

Pick up the genealogical department at random-any day-and you will find such fine and resonant names as Betsey Keyes, Patty Holbrook. Susanna Gates. Polly Arnold. Darius Dewey, Prudence Rand, Thankful Sawyer, Thankful Newcomb, Hannah Pike, Deborah Clark, and Jonathan Rich-all of which are from one recent column. It is true that the same column contains names which are not exactly euphonious, and are indeed rather hard nuts to crack; these, for example: Leafy Bullard-a woman; whence the name of Leafy-Hatsel Higgins. Sparrow Higgins, Abigatl Nash. Zeruiah Jewel, and Alcy Lockwood. In the previous number of the same department are found the names Content Brown. Tabitha Holdredge. and Keturah Bassett.

The Nomad once encountered in an old book the name of Camilla Scudder. Was there ever a swifter name than that? And what about the name of Hepzibah Hathaway of New Bedford, found in Emery's book on the Howland Heirs?-The Nomad in Bos ton Transcript.

Saturday also has a bad reputation; its specialty is murders; and fully half the petty crime that is dealt with in the police courts occurs on that day. But probably that is because Saturday also holds the record for Grateful Carlo.

In Kentucky three men were shot to death in a fight about a dog which one of them had killed. Some men never live long enough to learn that when a dog becomes personal property the tie of pride and affection makes the animal a serious proposition to be trifled with, and that many men were born to love dogs. This reminds us that in the happy days of boyhood our most faithful and devoted friend was an old pointer named Carlo. Never did we ent a lunch out of doors without sharing it with the devoted Carlo, and that noble and loving dog invariably manifested his gratitude by shaking himself vigorously and letting us in a reciprocal way have about 50 per cent of his most active fleas .- New Orleans States.

Don't think you are a failure because you are not doing big things in a great city; because your name is not in the great newspaper; because you are not piling up wealth. If you are do-ing your level best where you are; if you are honest, industrious, square; if you are making each day an advance upon the previous one; if you are cheer-ful under difficulties, helpful and inspiring to everybody about you if you are taking every opportunity to improve yourself, to make yourself a larger and a nobler man, you are infinitely more successful than a greedy, hard, selfish millionaire.

MAKING MONEY OFF KIPLING'S AUTOGRAPHY

At one time Rudyard Kipling al-ways paid his bills, no matter how small they happened to be, with checks After a while he discoverd, to his amaizement, that his bank account showed a much larger balance than the stubs of his checkbook war-ranted. In fact while he was drawing checks for small amounts almost daily his money in the bank did not seem to dwindle in the least.

For a long time he was at a loss t account for this astonishing fact unt he happened one day to visit an office, the accupant of which was an er thusiastic autography collector. Therethe author saw one of his own check framed and hanging on the wall.

Thus the mystery was solved. I appeared that the local shopkeeper found that they often got more for Kipling's checks by selling them to autograph hunters than they could by cashing them at the bank, and se although the author kept on drawin checks, his bank balance remained a most intact.—Los Angles Times.

PUTTING FIGHTING QUALITIES IN YOUR BLOOD

If You Are Pale and Weak, Without Ambition, You Need a Tonic.

TRY TAKING PEPTO-MANGAN

Rich, Red Blood Fights Off Disease and Keeps You Well and Enables You to Work With Pleasure.

Serious sickness often comes when you least suspect. You may feel a little over-tired. You haven't been exposed to contagion, yet all of a sudden you are flat on your back and in for a siege of sickness.

Your blood did not have fighting vitality and powers of resistance were, ergy. Your blood is driven to do more than it can. It becomes clogged with waste. The waste acts like poison.

Disease germs get in your blood and dominate.

Don't let yourself get run down. Take that good tonic, Pepto-Mangan. It makes rich, red blood that will resist and rout out disease germs.

COAL SITUATION IS GRADUALLY IMPROVING

Washington, Nov. 1.—Coal prices have begun to decline in a number of cities and states with a general indirealize a distinct reduction in the coal, bill, according to information obtained today from reports reaching Washington authorities on the coal indus-

In the bituminous coal fields the 25 | situation is satisfactory, generally speaking, and as compared with that of a few months ago, it is even better than the most hopeful predictions entertained at the latter time. Reports from the anthacite fields show indications of a determined effort on the part of the anthracite producers to eliminate practices which resulted in excessive prices. In many communities, price declines for anthracite coal also have been reported.

Rat-Snap Beats the Best Trap Ever Made," Mrs. Emily Shaw Says.

(Nashville Tennessean.) Because the price of cotton has not skyrocketed within the past few weeks the impression has been spread abroad that we are not prospering and that the purchasing power of the Southern States is weak. This is a false idea, founded on the fallacious belief that the South is still a one-crop section. Because one of our crops is not bringing top prices there Your blood did not have lighting qualities. It was weak and thin. Your we have nothing else that it also is experiencing a slump.

The truth is that the South is more prosperous than it has ever been; it will continue to be so. In addition to this cotton crop we have scores of other crops in fields and orchards,

We of the South know of this prosperity, and a temporary slump in the price paid for one of our crops does not mean that we have hit the financial bottom. The steady demand for our other products will more than offset the fall in cotton.

Spiders as Compations:

Of all creatures to choose as pets spiders seem to be the strangest. Yet many famous men have formed real friendships with spiders. Beethoven; when studying the violin at the age of seven years, had a spider so accustomed to him that it would crawl on to his arm while he was practicing. Of Paganini it is said that whenever he played a certain air on his violin a spider approached him and stood still listening until he had finished. Gaetry, author of "Richard Coeur de Lion." tells of spiders that used to perch motionless upon the piano while he

THE NAME BEHIND THE TIRE REMEMBER in your boyhood days. that you weren't a regu-lar fellow unless your bike sported G & J Tires? To-day, the man with G & J Tires on his car is just as proud and pleased. G & J Tires take figures off the tire bill and put them neter—and he knows it. "The Name Behind the Tire" has always stood for quality from the be-pinning of bicycle days right down to o-day. When you pay for a G & J Tire you feel the satisfaction of having a company older than the automobile industry itself saying, "that tire is right." The Name G & J stands behind the tires "G" Tread, "Stalwart," "Pla and "G & J Cord." Have your desupply you with G & J Tires. Distributed By STRATTON & TERSTEGGE COMPANY
